

UD ChE Student Awards & Today's Job Market and How to Get Ahead

The AIChE Wilmington Section is inviting you to attend our Student Awards event May 5th 2010 at the Christiana Hilton in Newark. Awards go to the highest achieving Senior, Junior and Sophomore from the Chemical Engineering Department at the University of Delaware. In conjunction with these awards we will have timely talk by Jessica Stinson on how prospective candidates can approach and land jobs in the current economic climate (abstract below). Please join us in awarding students as well as for an engaging topic.

Today's Job Market and What You Can Do to Get Ahead of the Competition

Jessica Stinson
Century Associates,
Philadelphia, PA

Wednesday May 5th 2010

Abstract:

The focus of this talk will be on today's employment climate and how candidates can get their foot in the door for an initial interview; a problem that many looking for new employment encounter. There will be a discussion on resumes including tips on how to make you appear more marketable on paper and NOT get lost in the crowd of resumes that HR and Hiring Managers are viewing.

There will be a discussion on guidelines to follow when approaching an opening. Topics covered include research to do, getting the right contacts and follow up. (Stay tuned to find out some "industry secrets" to get that job!).

Biography : Jess Stinson works with Century Associates and has been in Search for over 10 years, primarily focusing on the Specialty Chemicals, Medical Device, Microelectronics, and Advanced Materials arenas.
